ST James's, April 15. The following Addreſs has been preſented to his Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Town-Clerk and Burgeſſes of the Town of Cardiff in the County of Glamorgan; was preſented to his Majeſty by Sir Edward Stradling, Bart. introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Pembroke, Lord Lieutenant of South-Wales.

Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Vienna, April 10. The Emperour has written a Letter to the King of Sweden in very preſſing Terms, in which he exhorts him to hearken to reaſonable Conditions of Peace, and to ſend his Miniſters for that purpoſe to the Congreſs at Brunſwick: His Imperial Majeſty has alſo written a like Letter to the King of Poland, wherein beſides the general Exhortations to Peace, 'tis intimated, that if theſe Endeavours ſhould not at preſent have Succeſs, the King as Elector and conſequently Privy Counſellour of the Empire, ſhould conſider by what Means Foreign Powers might be beſt kept from intervening in Diſputes wherein the Territories of the Empire in particular are concerned, the Deciſion of which ought to be reſerved to the Emperour as their Chief. Advices from Buda of the 2d Inſtant tell us, that the Turks are making great Preparations on the Frontier, and talk of forming a Camp near Belgrade: They add, that two hundred Yards of the Walls of Buda having lately fallen in, and the former Ruins in the Fortifications being ſtill unrepaired, a Sum of Money is neceſſary to be remitted from hence in order to the putting that Place into a State of Defence. This Court is conſulting upon the propereſt Methods for ſupplying the Places and Troops in Hungary with all things requiſite for ſuſtaining a War on that Frontier if need be.

Ratisbon, April 15. The King of Pruſſia has given Advice to his Miniſters at the Diet here, of a Declaration lately made in his Name to the Court of Vienna, importing, that he had never any Intention to accept the Mediation of France upon the Points in Diſpute between his Majeſty and the King of Sweden, but by the Emperor's Conſent and in Conjunction with him. The Elector of Bavaria in his Paſſage was treated 8 Days by the Duke of Wirtemberg with very great Magnificence, and left Marks of his uſual Generoſity in that Court. His Electoral Highneſs is now with his whole Family at Munich, whither he came without any Ceremony: Some ſay his intended publick Entry is quite laid aſide, others that 'tis only ſuſpended till the Arrival of the Elector of Cologne, who is expected in theſe Parts about the End of next Month. M. Boſen the Saxon Miniſter has received Orders from the King of Poland to wait on the Elector at Munich, and make him a Compliment on his Return to his Dominions.

Hambourg, April 19. Letters from Dreſden give an Account, that they had Advice there that the King of Pruſſia did not accept the French Mediation between him and the King of Sweden, but on the previous Conditions that Stetin and the Territories comprehended in the Treaty of Sequeſtration ſhould be left in his Pruſſian Majeſty's Hands till the Peace, and that the Sums of Money advanced on Occaſion of that Treaty ſhould then be made good; that his Swediſh Majeſty ſhould engage not to invade Saxony or Poland and that he ſhould conſent to enter into a Negociation for compoſing the War in the North: Theſe Letters add, that for better ſecuring thoſe Conditions, the Pruſſian Troops are moving towards their Rendezvous appointed near Schwedt, that the neceſſary Preparations for their taking the Field are haſtened, and the fortifying of the Paſſes on the Frontiers continued. The Saxon General Hallard received Orders the 11th Inſtant from Field-Marſhal Count Flemming (who arrived at Berlin the 10th) to cauſe 8000 Saxon Foot and 6 Squadrons of Horſe to march to Lubben; where they are to arrive by the 20th of this Month, to encamp there till the 28th, and to be at Schwedt by the 4th of May. Another Body of 6000 Saxons is to be poſted at Naumbourg, to obſerve the Motions of the Heſſians. 'Tis adviſed from Copenhagen the 16th Inſtant, that the King of Denmark had ſent to General Dewitz to repair forthwith from Berlin to Holſtein, there to reſume his Poſt in the Army; and that his Majeſty will ſet out from Copenhagen ſoon after Eaſter, having fixed the 8th of next Month for taking a general Review of his Troops in Holſtein.

Hague, April 23. Mr. Walpole, the Britiſh Miniſter here, having received the King his Maſter's Letter notifying to the States General his being recalled from hence upon Mr. Cadogan's Return from Vienna, he accordingly delivered the ſame this Morning to the Preſident of the Week, and at the ſame time took his Leave of their High Mightineſſes by a Memorial: He intends to leave this Place as ſoon as he has his Recredentials, and will return to England in the Yatcht which lately brought over the Counteſs of Portland hither. M. Vandenbergh, their High Mightineſſes Miniſter for the ordinary Affairs of the Spaniſh Netherlands arrived here the 19th from Bruſſels; and M. Vanderduſſen and M. Gockinga, Plenipotentiaries of this State for regulating the Barrier, are daily expected from Antwerp.

Whitehall, April 15. On the 12th Inſtant died Thomas Marquis of Wharton, Lord Privy Seal; and is ſucceeded in Honour and Eſtate by his only Son Philip now Marquis of Wharton.

There being a Correſpondence ſettled between Great Britain and Spain, by the way of Falmouth and the Groyne. Theſe are to give Notice to all Merchants and others that the firſt Mail from London for Spain went from the General Poſt Office in London on Tueſday the 29th of March laſt and that Letters and Packets will be taken in at the ſaid Office on every other Tueſday from that Day.

Whereas a Letter ſigned B. B. and dated the 11th Inſtant, has been ſent to the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, offering to detect ſome indirect Practices that have been committed on board one of His Majeſty's Ships: Theſe are to give Notice, That if the ſaid Perſon will attend their Lordſhips at their Office and make out what he alledges, he ſhall receive all fitting Encouragement and Protection.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Royal Hoſpital near Chelſea give Notice, That on Monday the 25th of April in the Forenoon they will receive Propoſals, and treat with ſuch Perſons as are inclinable to furniſh the ſaid Hoſpital with all ſorts of Proviſions.
